HARDING SOUNDS DOOM OF TREATY

TELLS NEWSPAPERMEN IN UNMISTAKABLE WORDS IT CAN'T BE CONSIDERED BY THE U. S.

PROTEST SENT TO ALLIES

HUGHES DISPATCHES NOTES REGARDING AWARDING OF MANDATES

Washington, April 5.—The doom of the Treaty of Versailles so far as the United States is concerned was pronounced definitely by President Harding today.

In unmistakable words the president, speaking to newspapermen, made it clear he was convinced there is no practical way in which the United States can consider ratifying the treaty. He denied, however, that he has approved immediate action on the Knox peace resolution.

The president indicated, however, that he saw no particular reason for marked reversal of the position he took when he voted for the Knox peace resolution in the senate and when he endorsed it in his speech of acceptance during the campaign.

New Note to Allies

Washington, April 5.—A new note has been sent to the principal allied powers by Secretary of State Hughes protesting against their attitude on mandate territory, it was learned today.

The note, it is stated authoritatively, was dispatched last night. It is understood to have gone to Great Britain, France, Japan and possibly Italy and is the first formal statement of the position of the Harding administration on the entire mandate question. Its dispatch comes as a natural climax to the recent authoritative pronouncements that the United States will insist on recognition of the rights and interests of America in the territories of resources rendered as a result of the war.

Dispatch of the note also followed correspondence by the Wilson administration with the principal allied powers, in which this government sought to protect American interests.

FOR IMMEDIATE PEACE

HARDING TO NEGOTIATE IT, BUT TO STAND WITH ALLIES GENERALLY

Washington, D. C., April 5.—It is now possible to outline the course the administration plans to pursue in terminating the state of war with Germany and dealing with world peace questions. This course may be summarized thus:

1. Complete rejection of the Versailles peace treaty, including the league covenant.
2. Adoption of the Knox resolution declaring peace.
3. Negotiation of a separate treaty with Germany, settling damage claims and other questions growing out of the war.
4. Declaration in the Knox resolution of American intention to cooperate with our chief co-belligerents for mutual defense if the peace of Europe should be threatened by any power or combination of powers.
5. Adoption of a separate resolution declaring that the United States stands with the allied powers in holding Germany responsible for the war and bound to make reparation to the full extent of its ability.
6. Negotiation with Great Britain and Japan of an agreement for the reduction of naval armament.
7. Submission to the other powers of suggestions as to the association of nations for the promotion of world peace which the United States would be willing to join in conformity with its traditional policy of non-entanglement in the affairs of Europe and of preservation of independence of action.

Favorable to France
Paris, April 5.—The Knox peace resolution will provide that America will cooperate with any country menaced by Germany, according to a cablegram today from Stephen Lutzmann, a member of the Viviani mission to the United States. Lutzmann, calling his newspaper, the Matin, said the senator informed him the resolution will make no mention of reparations, leaving that question to be settled by the various governments. The resolution will be couched in terms favorable to France, he said.

Residence In State Entitles War Vets To Share In Bonus

Madison, April 5.—The supreme court today held that legal residence was the governing factor in the payment of the state soldier bonus.

This decision over-ruled the contentions of the Service Recognition board of Wisconsin, in charge of the distribution of the bonus money, and sustains the decision of the circuit court for Dane county. Two thousand service men will secure bonuses under the decision and the cost to the state will approximate $300,000.

The opinion was handed down by Justice Owen in the case of Ellis M. Lindemuth vs. E. L. Philipp, as governor, Orlando Holway, the adjutant general, and the Service Recognition board. Lindemuth was inducted into the service from Michigan, but his voting residence was Superior. He claimed $121.33 bonus under the bonus law enacted in 1919, and his claim was denied. Lindemuth sought and was granted a writ of mandamus from the circuit court at Madison. The Service Recognition board appealed.

ROADS IN GOOD SHAPE

ROUTE FROM MILWAUKEE TO STEVENS POINT INVITING TO MOTORISTS

The main traveled trunk line highways between Stevens Point and Milwaukee is in good condition for automobile traffic, according to Fred Shaurette of the Shaurette Transfer Line, who, with Ed. Duranso, arrived here Monday morning, driving a new truck for use in local and long distance moving.

Leaving Milwaukee, they traveled on Highway 15 to Oshkosh, then on 95 to Rhedfield and from there to Stevens Point on 18. The route from Milwaukee to Oshkosh was especially good. Between Waupaca and Stevens Point the poorest roads were encountered. Most of the way the roads showed the good effects of consistent dragging by patrolmen.

The new truck purchased by the Shaurette Transfer Line is of two and one-half ton capacity with 14 feet of loading space. It is a Milwaukee product.

FARM BUREAU FORMED

WAUPACA COUNTY FARMERS HOLD MEETING AND NAME OFFICERS

Temporary organization of a county farm bureau was made in Waupaca county recently. Officers selected are: President, A. J. Pinkerton, Waupaca; vice-president, A. C. Woodward, Weyauwega; secretary, Arthur Larson, Sheridan; treasurer, Kenneth Lindsey, Manawa. All farmers are eligible to membership and annual dues are $10.

Wisconsin is the only state in the upper Mississippi valley not having county farm bureaus in most of its counties. Many counties are now organizing for the first time, however, and another year will probably see Wisconsin farmers lined up with their neighbors.

FOUR COUNTY PLAN MEETS WITH APPROVAL

A general plan providing that Waushara, Green Lake and Waupaca counties unite with Winnebago county in a joint tuberculosis sanatorium has been approved by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, according to N. W. Noble, of the board of trustees of Sunnyview sanatorium, Winnebago county. The present plan is to make the Sunnyview institution a four county affair and it is believed action will soon be taken by the counties named.

TWO GOOD JOBS OPEN TO ENGINEER A. R. HIRST

Madison, Wis., April 5.—A. R. Hirst, state highway engineer who has offered his resignation to the commission, has received a telegraphic offer from the governor of Colorado to take charge of highway construction there. The telegram advised Hirst he could come on his own terms. Illinois has also made a tentative offer to Hirst to take charge of the $100,000,000 road building project to be constructed within the next few years.

TURKS DESTROY GREEK ARMIES

DISPATCHES FROM ASIA MINOR TELL OF DISASTROUS DEFEAT OF THE INVADERS

CONSTANTINOPLE JOYFUL

POPULACE CELEBRATES VICTORY IN WHICH PRINCE ANDREW WAS KILLED

Constantinople, April 5.—Greek armies in Asia Minor have been shattered and routed by the Turks. Dispatches brought by couriers from Brussa today showed the Greeks overwhelmed.

Three divisions were annihilated. Two escaped in panic flights over the desert, leaving a broad trail of dead and dying, smashed wagons, abandoned guns, wrecked ambulances, maimed horses and flaming ruins. Prince Andrew, brother of King Constantine, and many other high officers, including divisional generals, were left among the slain. Word of these losses trickling down the lines had a disastrous effect on the Greek morale.

Wild Celebrations

Constantinople was wild with joy. From Stamboul to Bebek and from Scutari to Pera banners and devices fluttered over jubilant crowds. Everywhere in some of the big colonies the populations joined in noisy rejoicing over the collapse of the Greek invasion.

BADGER ROAD PLAN COPIED IN ILLINOIS

COUNTY IN NEIGHBORING STATE ADOPTS PATROL SYSTEM AFTER TRIP INTO WISCONSIN

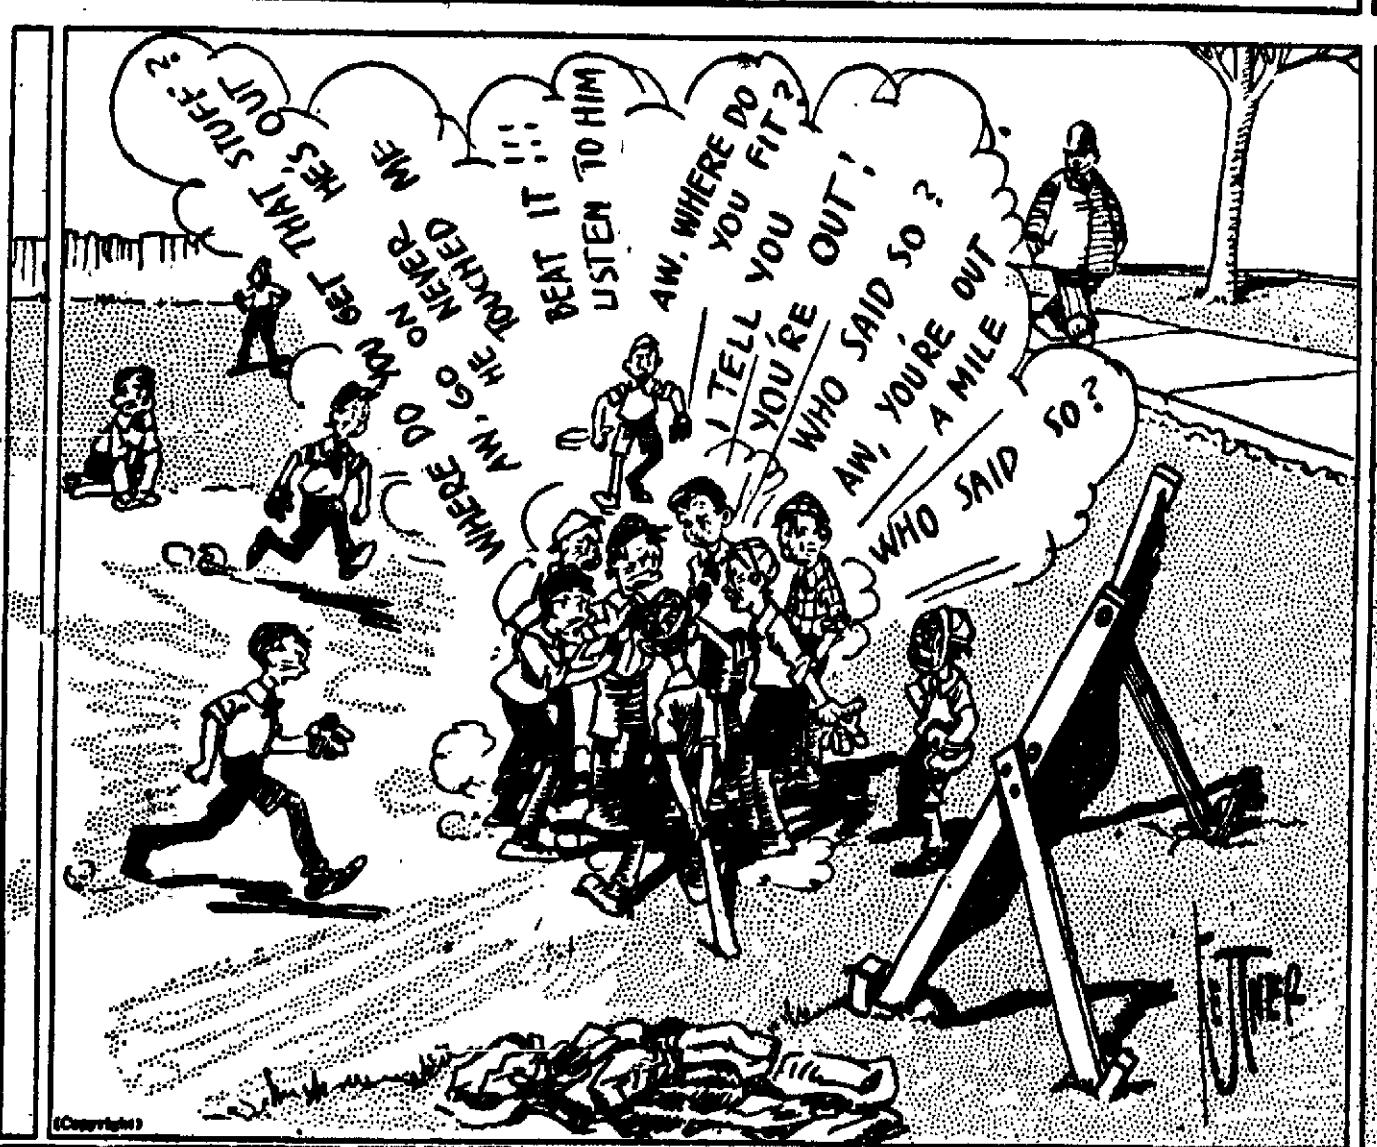

La Salle, Ill., April 5.—La Salle county has decided to build roads on the Wisconsin plan.

This move resulted from a trip made into Wisconsin last fall by La Salle county farmers and road commissioners to see for themselves the gravel road system of the Badger state. "They found hundreds of miles of fine roads cheaply constructed and cheaply maintained, fit for travel at any time," says the editor of the "Prairie Farmer," in the current issue of the corn belt paper. "They came back to La Salle county fired with the idea that they would put the Wisconsin system of maintaining roads in effect there as soon as they could. The employment of a patrolman was in the nature of an experiment to see how the Wisconsin idea would work in La Salle county."

The editors bestow upon Wisconsin further praise by picturing the result of the experiment. Passing over the road during March, when, as the story states, "the bottom of most Illinois roads is somewhere near the boundary line of China," the investigator rubbed his eyes to make sure that he was in La Salle county and not in Wisconsin. The patrolman of the six-mile stretch of road was busy, as they are in Badgerdom, dragging the road and seeing that each little hole or rut was filled with gravel. By these means little ruts are kept from growing into big ones, and no holes ever become puddles—all relatively for a low annual cost.

The Wisconsin road maintenance plan, which three of her next door neighbors are now adopting, is based on a network of roads in the state which connect all cities in the state. These roads are divided into sections of five to eight miles in length, under the supervision of a patrolman who is paid a salary large enough to attract good men. Each patrolman is responsible for keeping his stretch of road in good shape, and for being a competent aid to tourists along his stretch of highway. During 1920 almost 1,000 of these patrolmen kept the roads in such shape that out-of-the-state road men were impressed with the newly devised system of maintenance.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS PLAN PUBLIC SALE

FORMING OF LOCAL CLUBS ALSO ENDORSED AT AMHERST MEETING OF FEBRUARY DAY

At a meeting of the Portage County Holstein Breeders' association, held at Amherst village last Friday, the members discussed plans for holding a public sale of grades and purebreds. It was decided to hold a sale of grade females and purebred bulls on June 1 or 2 at Amherst. County Agent W. W. Clark and officers of the association are investigating to ascertain whether there is sufficient demand for purebred females to warrant buying a carload and shipping them to Portage county for the sale.

Mr. Everson of Lake Mills, a sales manager and breeder, who was present at Friday's meeting, advised the members that purebred Holsteins can now be purchased at reasonable prices. He came to Amherst to consult the members relative to the proposed sale.

The association endorsed the idea of establishing local community clubs of Holstein breeders, both grade and purebred, and plans were made for organization meetings in Buena Vista, New Hope, Amherst and Belmont, to be held within the next two weeks. The following schedule of meeting places was decided upon:

April 6—S. Earl Carley farm, Buena Vista.
April 7—School house at Peru, New Hope.
April 8—International bank, Amherst.
April 11—Hall at Blaine, Belmont.
Local Holstein clubs were recently formed at Rudolph, Junction City and Roskott.

POLLUTION REPORT IN WISCONSIN RIVER

Pollution of the Fox river with sewage is so great at times that it causes a critical condition, according to a report of C. M. Baker, state sanitary engineer.

Mr. Baker says the total volume of all kinds of waste discharging into the streams and lakes of Wisconsin is about 543,000,000 gallons daily. This is an equivalent to about 1,369,000,000 gallons daily of domestic sewage. Much pollution is found in the Wisconsin, Rock and Chippewa rivers, especially at Merrill, Nekeosha, Janesville and Eau Claire.

Increasing population along Lake Michigan in the vicinity of Milwaukee and other shore cities is making the sewage disposal problem more serious. A water and sewage law passed two years ago is serving to correct these conditions gradually.

WAUPACA COUPLE DIVORCED

The divorce case of Gordon B. Metkelski vs. Eva Metkelski, a Waupaca county special, was decided by Judge R. B. Park in circuit court here Tuesday. A decree was awarded the plaintiff on grounds of desertion.

BRITAIN FIGHTS STRIKE MENACE

WAR-TIME POWERS ARE ASSUMED BY GOVERNMENT AGENCIES TO SAFEGUARD NATION

PEACE PARLEY REPORTED

"TRUSTED INTERMEDIARIES" SAID TO HAVE OPENED NEGOTIATIONS

London, April 5.—Great Britain today was thrown back into war times by the coal strike.

To combat what was accepted as a threatened industrial revolution, government agencies were empowered to assume control of mines, street car lines, canals, harbors, export trade, lighting and all means of transportation. Some of these were taken over today. The authorities were prepared to introduce the most severe restrictions since the armistice.

To carry out its industrial program the government has already begun extensive military and naval movements. The navy recalled all men from furloughs and stopped all leaves. Troops were distributed in such a way as to give the government the greatest aid both in carrying on industry and preserving peace.

Transport workers, commonly recognized as the most radical labor groups, met today to decide ways of supporting the miners. Railway men meet tomorrow. The two sessions will determine definitely whether Britain faces a near-revolution. The three great groups form the triple alliance comprising over three million men and easily the most powerful labor army in the country.

Work For Settlement
London, April 5.—Informal negotiations for settlement of the British coal strike are under way, according to the Manchester Guardian. The newspaper said the conferences were begun by trusted intermediaries of the miners, owners and the government.

General Strike Delayed
London, April 5.—Britain's threatened general strike was deferred today, when transport workers adjourned without taking a vote. Called to decide what action to take in support of the mine strike, the transport workers considered only routine reports. They are expected to take joint action with the railway unions, whose executives meet here tomorrow.

First Violence Reported
Edinburgh, April 5.—First violence in the British coal strike occurred here today. Five hundred miners minute ultimatum issued by the strike overpowered a police guard at the era.

WISCONSIN HISTORY TOLD BY PIONEER

NARRATIVE LEFT BY EARLY DAY SETTLER TELLS OF BLACK HAWK WAR AND OTHER EVENTS

A new narrative of events in the Black Hawk war, early lead-mining days, and early logging and rafting times in Wisconsin has come to light and is now in the vault of the State Historical society. The narrative, which is quite voluminous, was written about 40 years ago by an aged pioneer named Esau Johnson, who died at or near Sparta probably in 1865. Johnson was born, so he says, in 1800 at Guilford Court House, North Carolina. His father emigrated to Ohio, and thence to Illinois. In 1826 Esau Johnson drove his "sucker team" of oxen to the lead mines at Shullsburg, and teamed to Galena until the Red Bird Indian trouble drove him south into Illinois for the winter. In 1827 he returned and from that time mined, teamed, and traded mostly at Blue Mounds till 1841. During the Black Hawk war he was at Blue Mounds but he spent one year on a farm in Richland Center, nine miles below Muscoda, after which he made his home on the Kickapoo and devoted himself to logging. He rafted logs down the Wisconsin and the Mississippi for a number of years. The story, while not written in literary style, has all the interest which attaches to a virile, adventurous pioneer life. A number of incidents are thrilling.

The society would welcome letters about the author from those who knew him.

WILL AT THE RAPIDS RESUMES OPERATIONS

Paper production at the Wisconsin Rapids divisional plant of the Consolidated Water Power & Paper company which was temporarily suspended 10 days ago, was resumed this morning. Shutting down of the mill did not throw the men out of employment, as they were assigned to repair work and other jobs. The Byron mill is running on a four day a week basis at the present time.

CITY OF ASHLAND WINS IN SUPREME COURT CASE

Madison, April 5.—The supreme court today upheld the city of Ashland in its contentions against the county board of supervisors of Ashland county, which sought to include railroad terminal valuations for purposes of equalization. The valuation amounted to $1,646,000.

Harthill colliery, wrecked the plant and drove away employees endeavoring to pump water from the pits. Five policemen and a number of workers were injured by the miners, who used clubs and stones. Twenty-five ponies left in the pits when the miners quit work will be drowned in a few hours. Pumps in the Fifth of North colliery were driven from the plant after a 10-minute ultimatum issued by the strike overpowered a police guard at the era.

TO ASK EXTRA JAIL FACILITIES

BIG INCREASE IN NUMBER OF DRUNK AND DISORDERLY CASES PROMPTS CHIEF TO ACTION

TOTAL FOR MARCH HIGH

BLAME FOR CONDITION PLACED ON EXCESSIVE USE OF MOONSHINE

The common council will be asked by Chief of Police John A. Hotness to provide additional jail facilities in Stevens Point by re-opening the calaboose in the first ward, in order to take care of the rapidly increasing number of "drunks."

Reference to police records for the month of March discloses that arrests on drunk and disorderly charges reached a total of 23, more than half of the total number for the entire year of 1920. Excessive use of moonshine is blamed by the chief for this condition.

Figures for March

During the month of March, 1921, Stevens Point police arrested 26 persons. Of this number 24 were charged with violation of city ordinances and one with violation of state law. Twelve, or just one-half of the taken into custody for alleged violation of local laws, were drunk and disorderly cases. The next largest class were those who were charged with speeding because of violation of the city traffic ordinance. In explaining that he would ask the common council for authority to re-open the calaboose, which has been closed for more than a year, Chief Hotness points out that present arrangements are far from satisfactory.

Present Plans Unsound

"It often happens that two citizens are called upon to take a couple of men into custody at night time," he said, "and if the trouble occurs down town the business district is left unprotected while they make the trip to the South Side station with the offenders. We should have access to a place closer by where the arrests can be more quickly effected." The chief further pointed out that it is not practical to use the county jail nights as it often means awakening them in charge.

No Decrease Seen

"The number of men arrested in Stevens Point on drunk and disorderly charges is far larger than it should be," Mr. Hotness added. He pointed out, however, that the police must be governed to a certain extent by statistics of the past and declared that there is no reason to believe drunkenness will suddenly decline in the city. For that reason he will request the use of the calaboose so that the officers can carry out their duties without unnecessary delays.

TO CONFER DEGREES ON 18 CANDIDATES

SPECIAL MASONIC MEETING IS PLANNED FOR SATURDAY; DINNER TO FOLLOW AFTERNOON SESSION

Officers of Forest Chapter No. 34, R. A. M., have made arrangements to hold a special convocation at the Masonic temple on Saturday afternoon and evening to confer the past master's degree and the most excellent master's degree upon a class of 18 candidates from Stevens Point and Plainfield.

The program provides for opening a past master's lodge at 4 o'clock when the work will be carried forward as far as possible before dinner. At 6:30 o'clock dinner will be served in the banquet hall and at 8 o'clock work will be resumed in the lodge room and a most excellent master's lodge opened and the conferring of the degrees brought to a completion.

Monarchy's Latest
Poor little Greece, which owed its only greatness in a thousand years to the leadership of its great republicans, Venizelos, was weak enough to restore Constantine, one of the royal conspirators of the great war. It was the first victory of monarchy over republicanism in Europe since the armistice was signed, and it encouraged other attempts in the same direction.

Karl, descendant of a score of Hapsburgs, offered himself as leader of a reactionary revolution in Hungary. It was a critical moment. What Greece did was not serious. Greece has no connections among other nations to which she might serve as an example. But had Austria and Hungary restored Kaiser Karl, they would have inspired outbreaks of the same character elsewhere in Europe, particularly in Germany. Karl with all the prestige of his family, with the strength it must have after its long rule, with influential connections everywhere, failed utterly. He did not even dare enter Austria, the German section of his dominions. He made his appeal to the Hungarians, who listened to him respectfully and then ordered him out of the country. In Austria there was great indignation because of his effort again to seize the throne. The little new nations all around Hungary threatened war if a monarchy was again set up with a restored Hapsburg at its head. Now Karl is at a border town in Hungary, pretending sickness to delay departure while he waits for something to turn up.

Karl's failure does not prove that Wilhelm could not be restored in Germany, where the attempt, if made at all, would doubtless be better organized, but it does indicate it. The people of Germany are a highly intelligent race. They see to what sorrows their monarchy led them, they are capable of great development under a peaceful, republican form of government. The new states about Hungary, now getting on peacefully with her, feared that a return of the monarchy would endanger their own lately acquired liberties. So it would be in Germany. France has no great worry that a democratic government in Germany will set out on a new program of imperialism. It knows it cannot trust the Hohenzollerns. An emperor back on the throne at Berlin would mean a constant threat of war to Germany's neighbors—restoration could be hoped for only through promise to regain the country's military glories—and it would tend to make the neighboring nations prepare for war on Germany.

The experiment of Karl shows that it is not safe for the peace of the world to permit persons so dangerous to remain at large. With every manifestation of internal discontent in their old territories, the watchful Karl and Wilhelm will be ready to take advantage of it. Perhaps public sentiment would not countenance the chopping off of their royal heads, which would be the simplest way of putting them where they could do no more harm, but it would at least, for public safety, agree to their confinement for life. Isolated islands strongly guarded, such as St. Helena, where Napoleon spent six years of his life, would be secure detention points for them.

Sometimes it is said that the world gained nothing from the war. It gained much if it rid itself of royalty. Italy and Great Britain are today the only nations of the first class which still maintain their royal thrones. And in Italy the hold of the monarchy is precarious and may at any moment be broken, while in England the present royal house has lasted for 200 years only by voluntarily agreeing that its kings shall be puppets of each popular cabinet and its power a sham. England, we may hope too, will before long rid herself of even the form of royalty. Russia, had off as she is, is at least free of her royal house and is showing no desire to have it back.

In 1918 kings went out of fashion in Europe. For the sake of the world, it is hoped they may never come back.

An Automobile Tax for Roads
A higher automobile tax, the mon-

ny to be exclusively for road improvement, should meet with the favor of owners of cars. It would be cheaper to pay several times the present tax with the money going into the roads than it is to go on as it present with the license law and the roads bad. Wisconsin has made only a beginning of road improvement. At the present rate of progress in Portage county it would be a long time before it would be possible to drive everywhere in the county with comfort. With the new tax it should be possible to build state roads and have money left to use on county roads. For we will not have a satisfactory system when we get our few trunk line highways as they should be. There are many miles of county roads in Portage county, carrying heavy traffic, which should be put into fit condition to handle it.

—The American Legion is starting a campaign to bring all world war soldiers into its membership. It is a good organization, membership in which is a great privilege denied to those so unfortunate as not to have in active part in the military work of the war, and none who was so lucky as to have served Uncle Sam should fail to join it. The public outside of the American Legion can watch its growth with satisfaction. It is founded on patriotism. It stands primarily for love of country, and no society with that principle as its guide can go far wrong.

—With Junction City people coming in in goodly numbers to the hotel company, can anyone think of a reason why any Stevens Pointers who can afford it and is loyal should stay out?

PUBLIC OPINION

Financial Statement by Henry Johnson, State Treasurer.

Editor Journal: The general fund as a rule is the one that guides the financial condition of the state as that fund is what is known as a "grab bag" proposition. Other funds are guarded more strictly by law.

The fiscal year ending June 30th ought to be done away with and books closed on December 31st. This would enable each administration to stand on its own footing, and one administration would not have to be responsible for the last six months of the previous administration, as is the case now.

For instance, as to the financial fiscal year, Governor Blaine's administration will commence on July 1st, as appropriations were made by the former legislature. If that is a fact, the Philipp administration, of which I was a member, would commence on the first day of July, 1915.

The table below will show the condition of the general fund as it was during the Philipp administration. At no time during this period were any warrants presented to the state treasurer which were not paid promptly, and at no time was there any juggling of funds in order to meet said payments.

General Fund
July 1, 1915 $ 4,620,195.02
July 1, 1916 2,000,728.29
July 1, 1917 2,087,073.76
July 1, 1918 3,532,012.74
July 1, 1919 5,391,505.97
July 1, 1920 8,718,001.65
July 1, 1921, estimate ... 11,000,000.00

There has also been paid out of the general fund on Certificates of Indebtedness to the school fund $871,000.

According to my estimate at this time there will be on July 1st, 1921, about eleven million dollars in the general fund. In addition to this we have $800,000 coming from the Federal Government for equipment of troops during the late war, which no doubt if effort is made can be collected. Only one-half of the railroad taxes is included in the above statement. The last half, due next fall, will amount to about $2,300,000. These amounts, with other revenue coming in, should be sufficient to run the state government if the legislature does not venture into new enterprises.

I am, however, not giving out this statement at this time either for or against any tax legislation that may be before the legislature. Tax problems have been before governments for the last two thousand years and will always continue to be. Seeking ways and means to more equitably distribute the cost of government, and the greatest arguments are usually for the other fellow to pay the taxes, or in other words, "let George do it." This is not the true American spirit. Every body should pay something towards the support of his government and by so doing he is proving himself a good American citizen.

HENRY JOHNSON,
State Treasurer
Madison, Wis., March 31, 1921.

What He Thought About It.
It was a beautiful summer night. My little boy and I sat on the balcony and looked off into space where thousands of tiny points of light hung like jewels. I thought of the stars and as I wondered how the lights of the scene affected him, I felt a pang. "What does it mean to you?" "What, it's just like an old man punched full of holes," said the boy. "Herald and Esau."

LOCAL NORMAL MUST HAVE IT

ITS REQUESTS FOR APPROPRIATIONS REASONABLE, IN OPINION OF SENATOR SEVERSON

TO BE US OR WHITEWATER

NOT A FAIR, SITUATION, SAYS SENATOR, WHO EXAMINES SCHOOL HERE

H. J. Severson, state senator from this district, came to Stevens Point today, delegated by the chairman of the joint finance committee of the legislature to investigate and report on the needs of the Stevens Point State Normal school. He will return, more strongly convinced than ever that the needs of the state school here are so pressing that they cannot fairly be denied.

When the board of normal school regents prepared its budget each school was given a sum for new construction. The total being so large that Governor Blaine and the legislature saw no way to meet it, the finance committee, after a preliminary investigation, decided that the claims of the Stevens Point and Whitewater schools were the most pressing. The regents were asked to take a vote on the priority of the claims of the two. Instead of limiting their choice to Stevens Point and Whitewater, the regents again scattered their votes, and their ballot showed Whitewater fourth in the list of preferences and Stevens Point fifth. First, second and third places went to schools which the finance committee believed did not need new buildings just now. The matter was referred back by the regents to the committee.

His Conclusion
In conferences last week the finance committee reiterated its opinion that only one appropriation could be made for new buildings and that it must go to Stevens Point or Whitewater. The committee did not have the information on which to act. The chairman then sent Senator Severson here to investigate.

The senator, who was a guest of Regent Orthman at the Rotary club this noon, mentioned his conclusions at that time. "I go back," he said, "convinced that our Stevens Point school must be provided for, and I will urge it upon the committee. I found the school doing good work, but I do not think it possible to do 100 per cent work with the facilities it now has. The building needs repair and more room must be provided. Ninety-five per cent of the boys and girls get their only education in the graded schools and high schools. Their teachers are the graduates of state normals. They cannot have good instruction unless the normals are properly equipped. It is not fair to the children who make up this 95 per cent to deny them education under the best conditions."

The senator said it was unfair to put the Stevens Point and Whitewater schools in the attitude of competitors. He said each should have what it actually needs.

The senator was vigorously cheered as he pledged himself to do his utmost for the school here. It was felt that it was not a mere matter of district pride with him, but of conviction that the school actually needs all it asks.

Frame-Up Sometimes
The legislature wants to do right always in making appropriations, said Senator Severson, but with 73 boards and commission presenting budgets, it is hard to get at the truth. Cases have been found, he said, in which there had been frame-ups to deceive the legislature. Sometimes appropriations have been asked and obtained for which there is no reason, and there are even cases of money being appropriated when the matter has been fully financed at a previous session. Hence the sentiment this year for thorough investigation before money in large sums is voted away.

Why So Many
The senator said he understood the Rotary club accepted only one member from each profession or line of business, yet, looking around, he "saw three of the best lawyers in town members."

President E. A. Oberweiser explained that "only one was a real lawyer." Broad smiles immediately appeared on the faces of the three lawyer members, each of whom knew he was the one meant.

Delegate John F. Sims presented an instructive report of the proceedings of the Rotary district convention at Fargo.

CATTLE MEN FORM COMMUNITY CLUBS

THIS COUNTY JOINS WIDE-SPREAD MOVEMENT FOR EFFECTIVE BREED ORGANIZATIONS

The Wisconsin Agriculturist for March 26 contains an article by E. L. Luther on the growth of the community dairy cattle breeders' organizations in Wisconsin. So rapid has been the development along this line that several counties, including Portage, which already have several of these clubs, have not been recognized one of the earliest counties to develop on the organization map.

Marathon county under the leadership of this system of clubs as opposed to the prevalent plan of a general county breeders' association. Six or seven such clubs each of the Holstein and Guernsey breeds are found in different communities in our neighbor to the north, and these again are federated into county associations. Under this arrangement local breed development is handled by the local club, while the county organization is run by a board of directors from the locals. This insures progress in each community without depending on outside direction.

Wood county held a number of Farmers' Institutes this winter and as a result County Agent Peterson has several local Holstein clubs which are taking hold of their community programs vigorously. The Nasonville Holstein club, for instance, has the following plan of work for the year.

(a) Get sixteen farmers now using scrub bulls to use Holstein bulls and join the Club.
(b) Support a boys and girls club of ten members.
(c) Hold a local community show and organize a community herd to show at the county fair.
(d) Promote cow testing—association and official.
(e) Each member pledges to get one pure-bred female for his herd.

Portage county now has four local clubs and others under consideration. Most of the members in the Rudolph Holstein club of 25 members are from Portage county. Junction City has a small Holstein club started and work will be planned soon. Rosholt is the banner community in this respect with both a Guernsey and Holstein club of sixteen and seventeen members. These clubs are combining in a program of dairy improvement which includes organization of a cow testing association, of a calf club, a community picnic and participation in the county fair. County Agent Clark is assisting these local clubs in organization and plans for work and the present strong county breed associations are lacking them also.

MILLIONAIRE OIL PRODUCER

TO VISIT OLD HOME TOWN

J. W. Dunagan received a letter Monday from Charles Page, the oil magnate and philanthropist at Tulsa, Okla., containing the pleasing information that Mr. Page expects to visit the "City Worth While" next July or August and spend a few days among friends of his boyhood days here. Mr. Page grew to young manhood in Stevens Point, for several years he was located in Minnesota, and then went to the southwest, where he "struck it rich" in oil lands and is rated as a multi-millionaire. An orphanage he established and is maintaining near Tulsa is regarded as a wonderful charitable undertaking.

INJURIES CAUSED

BY HORSE'S KICK FATAL TO FARMER

ADAM GOLLON OF THE TOWN OF HULL, AGED 26 YEARS, EXPIRES AT ST. MICHAEL'S HOSPITAL IN THIS CITY

Adam Gollon, of the town of Hull, a few miles north of the city, aged 26 years, died at St. Michael's hospital at 10:40 Monday morning as the result of injuries suffered last Wednesday evening when he was kicked in the abdomen by one of his horses. The accident happened in a barn on his farm and the blow buried him several feet. He was brought to the hospital, where an examination revealed that the lining of his stomach was torn. An operation failed to save his life.

The young man was born in Hull and had resided there all his life. He leaves a widow and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gollon of the town of Hull, and several brothers and sisters.

The body was removed to the family home Monday afternoon and funeral services were held from St. Casimir's church at Casimir on Wednesday. Burial took place in the parish cemetery.

PRODUCERS OF WOOL TO POOL 1921 CLIP

COOPERATIVE PLAN FAVORED BY COUNTY AGENT CLARK WHO OFFERS TO HELP FARMERS

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau will conduct a wool pool for wool growers of the state this year. Last year Wisconsin sheep men pooled more than 325,000 pounds in the National Wool Warehouse, Chicago, where the wool was graded and held for sale. In spite of the fact that the wool market during all the past year was more or less slow and inactive, in fact nonexistent up to Jan. 1, 1921. Four-fifths of the combined Illinois and Wisconsin wool pool of 1920 has been sold at prices ranging from 23 to 27 cents per pound, not including the best grades, which are still being held for a more favorable market.

Wool under this plan is concentrated by communities or counties, sacked and shipped to the central warehouse. At the warehouse each man's wool is graded separately and he is given a receipt showing the number of pounds of the different grades which he furnished. Wool of the same grade is then stored together and sold as the market demands or as seems best to the managers of the pool. When all the wool of one grade is sold the proceeds are divided among the growers who furnished it, each man receiving the same price per pound, which is considerably better on the average than the individual grower could secure for ungraded wool at shearing time.

Contrary to the favorable condition of the growers who pooled their wool in 1920, many farmers not joining the pool have found no sale for their wool, and still have it on their hands or have found only feeble markets which paid them much less on the average than has been paid for the pooled wools.

County Agent W. W. Clark, when asked regarding what will be done in Portage county, replied that he heartily approved of this method of marketing farmers' products. "This is the system under which we are handling soy bean seed in Portage county," he said, "and on the average it will give farmers better prices for any product which can be handled in this way. Further, it is apparently the only way in which farmers can combine to meet big buyers of their products on an equal basis, and until they do arrange to pool their crops they will have no means of influencing the markets for them."

"Although the farm bureau is handling the wool pool, it has asked county agents in counties where there is no farm bureau to assist in forming a county pool and if Portage county sheep men are interested I shall give them every assistance possible. I have no list of sheep growers in the county and men who have sheep should write me at once, if they want action."

MORE LIME ORDERED

BY COUNTY FARMERS TO SWEETEN SOILS

An order has been placed by County Agent W. W. Clark for a second car of ground limestone for farmers of Stockton and vicinity. A third carload has just been ordered for Amnott farmers and the second one is expected within a few days. It is probable that a fourth car will be ordered. The limestone is used to sweeten sour soils.

APRIL HUMANE THOUGHT

HUMANE WEEK BY A. E. FREDERICK State Humane Officer

"Think on these things."—St. Paul
In the hurry of life we often do not take time to think. Especially in this time of war, our relations toward dumb animals. Much neglect and cruelty is often caused by thoughtlessness.

This being true, humane workers of the country have set aside one week in the year to stimulate activity along humane lines, and to turn the thoughts of the nation to the great fundamental principles of kindness and mercy.

Humane Week, April 11th to 17th may be observed in many different ways. Appropriate humane exercises, programs, stories, essays, and contests in the schools on Friday afternoons of this week, and the discussion of a humane subject in the pulpits on Sunday, April 17th, will form effective means of reaching both young and old with a message. Then, in the homes this lesson may also be taught. Let not only the teacher and the preacher but also the parent teach and foster the humane spirit.

Wisconsin, ever at the front in all great movements, must not fall in this. There is no greater thought than that of mercy, no greater sermon than that on kindness, and no greater religion than these virtues practiced.

Let us all observe Humane Week, April 11th to 17th! Let us stop and think, that we may learn to be kind!

AUTO GOES INTO DITCH

EIGHT, ESCAPE INJURY
A Ford touring car carrying eight Stevens Point people went into the ditch on the Waupun road, about six miles north of the city Sunday night, but all escaped injury and the car was but little damaged. The party was returning from a call at a residence in the town of Dewey, where a child had died. The lights of the car went out while the machine was being driven back to this city and the car left the road in the darkness. It did not tip over, but became so deeply imbedded in the mud that it was impossible to drive it out. The passengers were picked up by passing cars and brought to the city.

SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S NEWS

Child Welfare Week

The local circle of the Child Conservation League, with the hearty support of the various Parent-Teacher organizations throughout the city, is undertaking an ambitious program for National Child Welfare Week, April 24 to May 1. At a meeting held in the library club rooms Friday evening, plans were outlined for the week by Mrs. Alex. Ringness, president of the Child Conservation League and general chairman for Child Welfare Week.

The schedule prepared includes the following activities:

Tuesday—The weighing and measuring of children from six months to six years at their respective ward schools. This will be in charge of the Parent-Teacher associations, which will also arrange programs and plans for a social hour for the afternoon.

Wednesday—A baby clinic will be held at some central location under the supervision of a baby specialist, assisted by trained nurses. In the evening this specialist will lecture on his subject.

Thursday will be devoted to children's recreations and will be in charge of an expert in this line. In the afternoon a lecture, illustrated with slides and films, will be given. In the evening, it is hoped to have a health playlet, folk dances and other interesting features presented by the children.

Friday, the last day, will be devoted to the study of foods in connection with the health and growth of children, and to essential points in child-raising.

The work is being undertaken with the hope of aiding the city and county nurses in the vast amount of work confronting them. Through these activities much valuable data will be collected, and they will be an opening wedge in awakening the interest of mothers in present-day methods of rearing their children. The endorsement of the citizens of Stevens Point is earnestly hoped for.

The hall was artistically decorated in green and red streamers draped from a dome in the center of the hall. The dome was decked with roses and greens. The walls about the hall were covered with green and rose netting. Ferns adorned the stage and a few floor lamps added to the decorations. The grand march was held at 10 o'clock, led by Otto Beckus, president of the junior class, and Miss Jeanette

The next party to be given by this organization will be on May 15th.

BATTILING INSECTS

Now is the time to plan a right flank movement on the army of bugs, says the American Forestry Association, which calls on every American citizen to enlist to make it a big year against the insect pests that destroy five hundred million dollars worth of your property every year. The birds are the great "front line army" in this warfare, the association points out, but folks cannot work as fast as birds, so they must resort to other means.

There are two big divisions to the advancing hosts. These are the chewing and sucking insects. Plans to get them differ. The plan of campaign is determined by the kind of injury done for you are only wasting time applying the methods for chewing insects to those that suck their food.

Bordeaux mixture does not kill insects; it only prevents and controls damage by disease. Chewing insects are generally controlled by poisoning what they feed on, while sucking insects are only controlled by spraying the insects themselves. Determine how the creature secures its food—(1) whether by chewing and swallowing portions of its food, or (2) by sucking the juices of plants through a tiny beak inserted in the plant tissue.

The first group usually called chewing insects, can generally be controlled by poisoning their food at an advantageous time, with some of the well known arsenical compounds. The work of chewing insects is usually recognized by the ragged or perforated condition of the foliage.

The second group, composed of sucking insects, can be controlled by oily or corrosive contact sprays applied directly to the bodies of the insects. It is useless to attempt any control of a sucking insect by the application of a stomach poison, either to the surface or in the map of a food plant. The work of sucking insects is not so easily recognized as that of the preceding group, since the affected plants show little external injury. Gradual weakening, wilting, or shriveling of the attacked plant is generally evidence of attack by sucking insects.

LOCAL BATTERY GOES IN 120TH

COMMAND HERE OFFICIALLY DESIGNATED IN GENERAL ORDERS FROM ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

PUBLIC DRILL APRIL 12

WEEK-END ENCAMPMENT FOR THE MEN WILL ALSO BE HELD SOON

Stevens Point's National Guard unit, which has been designated as Battery B, Second Field Artillery, Wisconsin National Guard, will hereafter be known as Battery B, First Battalion, 120th Field Artillery, W. N. G., according to general orders No. 7 issued from the adjutant general's office at Madison. The order is effective April 1 and the conversions, transfers and assignments of organizations are made in compliance with current tables of organization and allotment of National Guard units to Wisconsin as approved by the secretary of war. There will be no change in the battery equipment. The plan retains for National Guard troops of Wisconsin the wartime unit designations of the famous Red Arrow division. It will in all probability mean that the record of the Thirty-second division will become a tradition to be revered and honored by offspring units of the wartime division.

Assignment Places The new assignment of the local unit returns the men who are now enlisted to the same field artillery regiment in which 100 Stevens Point men served during the world war. The latter were members of Battery E, 120th Field Artillery. It is most pleasing to the Stevens Point guardsmen to be identified with the unit to which many former Stevens Point service men belonged during the war. The order just received here lists Antigo as Battery A and Merrill as Battery C, these two, together with Battery B of this city, to comprise the First Battalion of the 120th Field Artillery. The linking of these three cities together is also considered favorable here from a geographical standpoint, making week-end encampments of the three organizations possible after full equipment arrives.

Names of field officers assigned to command the regiments and battalions and of officers to become members of the staff of the field units are not available, but are to appear in a completed roster expected later.

Public Drill Soon Captain Carl Anschuetz announces that the public drill which the battery has been planning for some time is to be held on Tuesday evening, April 12, on the campus at the State Normal school. Weber's band will turn out for the occasion. The battery will stand retreat at the opening after which the men will do intensive drill formations, closing with taps.

Plan Week-End Camp Another event which the men are looking forward to with interest is a week-end encampment scheduled for Saturday, April 9, and Sunday, April 10. According to present plans the camp will be held up the river, definite location to be decided within the next few days. The public will be invited to go there and witness the formations. The battery will go into as strict a military camp as possible, but the recreational features will not be neglected. While there the men will receive instruction in the preliminaries of fire discipline.

Men Making Progress The battery was arranged in permanent formation for the first time on Tuesday evening at its regular drill. Hereafter the men have lined up as an infantry unit and did infantry work, enabling them to become accustomed to fundamentals of drill which were necessary before starting regular battery work. On Tuesday night for the first time the battery started artillery work, which consisted of instruction to drivers and maneuvering of drivers and also instruction in signalling, taking up the first half of the alphabet in the semaphore system.

At the next weekly drill to be held at the Parish house next Tuesday evening the instruction of a gun squad will commence. Captain Anschuetz announces that the public is invited to witness any or all of these drills at any time and that interested persons who desire to see what the battery is doing will be welcome.

Must Act on Army An order received from General Hoyer at Madison on Thursday reads as follows:

"Unless suitable armory and stable facilities are provided and favorably reported upon by the federal inspector by October 1, 1921, federal recognition will be withdrawn from the organization."

A member of the local battery will be sent to Camp Douglas this week in an effort to hurry along the equipment, which it is hoped will be received without further delays.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Joseph Hebal

The remains of the late Mrs. Joseph Hebal of Stevens Point, arrived here on an early morning train on Thursday and were taken to Custer, where the funeral was held from St. Mary's church. Rev. L. M. Schorn officiated and burial followed in the parish cemetery. The casket bearers were Fred and Earl Wagner, Ralph Doan, Fred Ingwersen, Peter Kolts and Matt Britz, all of the town of Stockton.

Among those who attended the funeral were Henry Stoltenberg of New Hope and Henry and Andrew Stoltenberg of Nelsonville, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Benson's Corners and Nick Simons of the town of Amherst. The widower and his brother, P. Hebal of Watertown, S. D., who came on to Stevens Point a few days ago, in order to make funeral arrangements, left on an early morning train for St. Paul, from where they will return to their respective homes.

Mrs. Hebal's death was caused by hardening of the arteries and weak heart action. She was taken sick on January 13 and had been confined to her bed at her home in Goodwin for three weeks prior to her death. The end came on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Anna A. Ostrum, was born May 31, 1843, in New York state and when a small girl accompanied her parents to Wisconsin, the family locating near Friendship. Her marriage to Horace Van Buskirk took place there and in Civil war days the couple traveled by team with a party of prospectors to Idaho, returning to the west in 1864. They located on the western part of the state near La Crosse, where Mr. Van Buskirk died in the 70's. In 1877 the widow removed to Olmstead county, Minnesota, to live with a sister, Mrs. Charles O. Potter. Two years later the Porters removed to South Dakota, the widow locating at Goodwin.

Mr. Hebal, who resided at the place now known as Benson's Corners in Portage county during his younger manhood, went west in 1879 and was married to Mrs. Van Buskirk at Goodwin, S. D., on January 20, 1885. They removed to Gary, S. D., soon afterwards, where Mr. Hebal served as county treasurer of Deuel county for a term of six years, then returning to Goodwin. They resided on a farm near the village limits of Goodwin until the spring of 1907 when Mr. Hebal gave up active farm work. He and his wife then took up their residence in the village.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hebal were critically ill with influenza a year ago and at that time the latter expressed the wish that after her death her remains be laid to rest beside those of Mr. Hebal's relatives in the cemetery at Custer, this county. The remains were therefore brought here this week in compliance with her request.

Besides the widower there survive three sisters and one brother as follows: Mrs. Mary A. Pratt of Durban, Manitoba, Mrs. E. R. Plumley of Medora, N. D., Mrs. Charles O. Porter of Milbank, S. D., and Tim Ostrum, who resides near Friendship, Wis.

Mrs. Albert Shemanski

Mrs. Henrietta Shemanski, wife of Albert Shemanski, of the town of Hull, passed away at St. Michael's hospital March 29 following an illness of two weeks with diabetes. She was removed to the hospital last Saturday.

The deceased was 55 years of age. She was born in German-Poland and came to America with her husband 37 years ago, the couple immediately coming to Portage county to reside. The family home has since been in the town of Hull.

Besides the widower, the following children survive: Mrs. Anna Sprzel-ski of Dancy, Mrs. Edward Shuda, Mrs. Joseph Kalena and Mrs. Frank Petta, all of Stevens Point, Mrs. Dominick Shuda of the town of Hull and Bertha and Elizabeth Shemanski at the family home.

The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church at Torun. Rev. I. Grad officiating. Interment took place in the parish cemetery.

Nicholas Dobeck

Nicholas Dobeck, aged 29 years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Helen Lasarski, 500 North Division street, at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening. His death was caused by Bright's disease and followed an extended illness. Mr. Dobeck had been in poor health for more than a year and had been confined to his bed for the past three weeks.

The deceased was born in Stevens Point and had been a life-long resident of this city. After attending the public schools he secured employment in the city. Last summer he was employed by the Mallette Sausage company of Stevens Point but was compelled to give up his work in the fall because of poor health.

Besides his mother, there survive one brother and two sisters. John Dobeck of this city, Mrs. W. J. Kennedy of Chicago and Mrs. Ed King of Linwood, and two step-brothers, Walter and Leo Skowronski, both of Stevens Point.

Funeral services will be conducted

JUDGES CHOOSE SCHOOL SPEAKERS

MISS ETHEL BLAKE AND MELVILLE BRIGHT WILL REPRESENT CITY AT MARSHFIELD

Miss Ethel Blake and Melville Bright were winners respectively of the local declamatory and oratorical contests held at the high school on Wednesday evening. Miss Blake's declamation was entitled "Billings of '49," while Mr. Bright spoke on "Modern Feudalism." These young people will represent Stevens Point in the triangular league contest which includes this city, Medford and Marshfield, at Marshfield on the evening of April 11.

Second honors in the declamatory contest here went to Miss Jeanette Wilson whose subject was "The One Hundred and One." Second place in oratory was awarded to Wilbur Snyder, whose oration was entitled "The New South." These two students will be the alternates to the regular speakers.

The judges on Wednesday evening were Profs. E. T. Smith, T. A. Rogers and A. J. Herrick of the State Normal school. Principal L. R. Klinger of the high school presided. The contests were well attended.

C. O. Soon Shortens Sentence. Private Binks was incarcerated. His disposition had always been too merry and carefree to suit the commanding officer, but when he entered the post command whistling, it was altogether too much. "Binks," said the captain sternly, "you seem to like to whistle. I'll give you your chance. Stand there in the corner and whistle for one hour." Private Binks swung into the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

"Your sentence is mitigated to five minutes," said the captain, rising wearily to attention.—American Legion Weekly.

mining whether Olshoska was permanently disabled and if so the percentage of his disability.

The case of George Stein vs. State Board of Control was also heard. Stein, engineer at the State Normal school here, was injured a year ago while employed at the Home of Peckie Minded at Chippewa Falls. A barrel of oil which he was attempting to lift fell on him, injuring his stomach and finally resulting in three operations. Stein was paid compensation for a given length of time but the commission is now asked to determine whether he is entitled to additional compensation covering a period of unemployment as a result of his operations, and also whether the State Board of Control should pay the expense of the additional operations which he underwent.

The case of John Krush vs. Minn. St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie railway company was continued while no action was taken on that of Oscar Chasen vs. Jackson Milling company.

Irritability Denotes Sickness

Parents would do well to remember that when their children are cross or irritable the reason is not so often mean dispositions as an illness of some sort. In young children irritability is one of the first symptoms of physical discomfort. If the cross child is given proper attention at once very often the establishment of disease can be prevented. The best method is to restrict the diet and stimulate the elimination till the child's disposition is normal again.—Exchange

NEW COUNTY FARM HOUSE

HANDSOME FIREPROOF STRUC-
TURE TO BE BUILT
THIS YEAR

A counter proposition of the Soo line for the purchase of 171 acres of land included in the county farm near Lake Emily was accepted by the county board of supervisors in special session Wednesday afternoon. The board also voted to build a county farm house this year.

The Soo line's counter proposition was received by wire at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in response to one made by the county board in a telegram sent earlier in the day. The proposition which was accepted provides for the payment in cash of one-half the purchase price of $35,000 and the balance in one year without interest, secured by a mortgage on the property. The Soo line agrees to give the county the use of the land this season, with the exception of a strip adjoining the railroad right-of-way to be used for the removal of gravel, and the county will have until June 1, 1922, to remove the buildings from the land. The motion to accept the proposition of the railroad company, made by Supervisor Halverson, provided for the payment of $17,500 in cash within five days. The motion was carried by a vote of 27 to 1. Supervisor Atwell being the only one to vote against it.

Move for New Buildings

The board, in a series of motions, voted to build a county farm house this year, to replace the building destroyed by fire a year ago. It decided to accept, as prospective plans, the plans submitted by Supervisor Mersch, chairman of the county farm committee and left the matter of the site to the county farm committee, the chairman of the board and the county clerk, and authorized this committee to have an architect draw up plans and specifications. After the plans and specifications have been approved by the state board of control, the committee will advertise for bids and on the day the bids are returnable the county board will meet again in special session. No bids will be accepted unless accompanied by a certified check representing five per cent of the cost of the building and the board will reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

To Be Fireproof.

The new building, which will probably be erected on the south side of of the Soo right-of-way, on the shore of Lake Emily, will be a modern fireproof structure, approximately 110 by 40 feet in size, with two stories and basement. Brick, tile and concrete will be the principal material used. The building will have room for 30 inmates and in addition will have well-arranged quarters for the superintendent and family. It will be slightly larger than the old building and have much better arrangement.

New Phone in Jail

Before adjourning late Wednesday afternoon the board voted to replace the party telephone line in the county jail with private line and to allow each member of the board pay for a day and one-half.

NO MONEY FOR NURSE COUNTY BOARD VOTES

DESPITE LAW WHICH MAKES IT
COMPULSORY, SUPER-
VISORS REFUSE
TO ACT

The county board of supervisors, at its session Wednesday afternoon, voted down the proposal of Supervisor Louis Skoglund of the town of Ambost to engage a county health nurse.

Mr. Skoglund's motion was presented at the afternoon session but was laid over until afternoon. At the afternoon session Supervisor George Stertz of Junction City presented a motion providing that no money be appropriated for hiring a nurse. The motion was carried without a roll call.

Under a law passed by the 1919 legislature, every county in the state is required to engage a public health nurse on or before July 1, 1921. There is a movement now in progress to have the present legislature strike out the compulsory feature of the law. If the law remains as it is the state will have the power to name nurses for any county which does not act charging the cost of the nurse back to the county.

HEMORRHAGE CAUSE OF SEARIS' DEATH

INJURIES TO BODY ALONE
WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN FATAL IN OPINION OF PHYSICIANS

Physicians at Ladysmith who conducted a post mortem examination over the remains of the late Melvin Searis of this city, who died following a fall from a gasoline speeder on the Soo line near Ladysmith Monday evening, reported a hemorrhage as the cause of the man's death.

The question of whether Mr. Searis' death was caused by the accident or by sudden affliction appears to have not been definitely decided. Fellow workmen, who were hurried to the roadbed when the speeder suddenly left the rails, expressed the opinion that the man either fainted or was suddenly stricken down, falling from the moving machine and causing its derailment. One of the party shouted a warning but this was not heard by the others because of a strong wind.

Mr. Searis was still alive when picked up but passed away two hours later after a special train which had been chartered to take the injured men from the scene of the accident reached Ladysmith. He was living when removed from the train to an ambulance but when those in charge of the vehicle took him out at the door of the hospital discovered that life was extinct. One side of Mr. Searis' face and one ear had been torn off and it was later found that his skull was cracked but that his brain had not been injured. It is believed these injuries were caused when he fell from the speeder, his head striking the rails and being crushed by a wheel of the machine.

Physicians who conducted the post mortem expressed the belief that the injuries alone would not have caused his death. They also ascertained that apoplexy was not a cause.

To Add Eighty Men To Local Soo Line Repair Department

Eighty or 90 additional carpenters are to be added to the force of the local car repair department of the Soo line as rapidly as first-class men can be engaged. It was announced Friday by A. L. Fillmore, master. The enlarged crew, when organized up to full strength, will number 350 men, which will be the biggest force ever employed in the department. The crew has been maintained at practically armistice size ever since the armistice and has been unable to keep up with the work of repairing bad order cars," he said. There are two other car repair points on the northern district of the Soo line's Chicago division, at Ashland and Irvine. However, the Stevens Point department is the only one to employ a larger crew.

At present there will be no enlargement of the space occupied by the local repair department, Mr. Fillmore said.

WAUPACA AND LAKES BID FOR HOSPITAL

DELEGATES SENT TO WASH-INGTON IN AN EFFORT TO GET ONE OF FEDER-AL BUILDINGS

E. A. Hannon and Lee I. Yorkson of Waupaca have gone to Washington D. C. to present the advantages of that city and the Chain O' Lakes for the location of one of the five new public health service hospitals planned to be built by the federal government for the care of disabled soldiers of the late world war.

Wisconsin has reason to hope that one of these five hospitals may be built within its boundaries and Waupaca business men believe that no more beautiful spot can be found than at some point near one of the 13 lakes in the chain that has given Waupaca an enviable reputation as a summer resort town.

It is considered doubtful if Waupaca has a rival in the amount of new building done in the season of 1920, when building aggregating $343,000 was completed in the city of Waupaca, which has an assessed valuation of two million dollars.

Two funds to defray the expenses of the delegates to Washington were raised in a few minutes when it was decided to press the city's suit by personal representatives and not alone by letter.

Don't buy any milker till you see the Pine Tree

EVERYBODY is talking milking machines these days. They are getting so popular that some people pay out their money carelessly without looking around. Don't make this mistake! You can't be too careful in choosing your milker. Let the other fellow put up with the second raters.

YOUR Cows Deserve a Pine Tree

There are two ways to be sure that the Pine Tree is the Greatest Milker in the world—

First Look it over and compare it with others. You can tell a well-made, businesslike machine when you see it. Just get down to "grass ticks" and size it up yourself.

Second Look around and hear what Pine Tree users say. Watch it milk your neighbor's cows. Study the way it milks—see how it works just exactly like a calf milker. Look at the condition of udders and teats of cows who have been milked by Pine Tree for months or years. Study their milk records. These are the things that tell the story.

See Me or Phone at Once

Don't delay any longer. Let's get together on this matter at once. Remember, don't buy any milker till you see the Pine Tree—the milker which milked Prospect Johnson's cows, the new Wisconsin Junior 4-year-old Champion, 4 times a day through a year's test, and made 554 pounds of butter. Come in this week end, or phone me when I can come out and see you at your place.

HIGHWAY SCHOOL IS BIG SUCCESS

CROWD ATTENDS INTERESTING MEETING HELD AT COURT HOUSE TUESDAY

PATROL WORK IS PLANNED

TEN PATROLMEN ARE ENGAGED FOR SEASON—NEW WAGE SCALE

Problems of road construction and maintenance were discussed and details of the county's 1921 road program worked out at the annual county road school, held at the court house. The school was in charge of T. E. Cauley, county highway commissioner; F. F. Mengel, division highway engineer, and two assistant engineers, E. Nordnes and G. Eldred, Grand last week.

Rapids, and the county state aid road and bridge committee, composed of Supervisors Ben Halverson, George Wolfe and D. H. Parks. It was attended by upwards of 100 men, including patrolmen, pathmasters, town chairmen and others interested in highway development.

The program covered various phases of road work and was both interesting and instructive. The speakers included Highway Commissioner Cauley and Engineers Mengel, Nordnes and Eldred.

Patrolmen Engaged

The county road and bridge committee, with the county highway commissioner and Engineer Mengel, engaged 10 patrolmen for work on federal trunk lines, leaving one vacancy to be filled, and four patrolmen for county trunk lines. The patrolmen will receive $150 a month to start, but will be raised to $165 if they make good, with a bonus of $5 additional if they remain through the season. Patrolmen are required to furnish a team and wagon.

To Use Auto Trucks

In addition to the road sections to be covered by men and teams, there will be four sections of double length cared for by auto truck crews of two men each. The automobiles will be rented from the state and will be used on federal trunk lines. The county has also received a tractor-grader on trial, and this machine may be purchased if it proves successful in road maintenance.

New Wage Scale

It was also decided, at the meeting Tuesday, to establish the wage scale for labor used in road construction this season at $3 for a man and $6.50 for a man and team. Last year the scale was $4 and $8. The new scale is said to be as high as any other county in this section of the state has adopted.

FARMERS OF STATE INSURE GRAIN CROP

TREATMENT OF SEED FOR SMUT FOUND PROFITABLE BY MANY GROWERS IN WISCONSIN

Madison, April 5.—Wisconsin farmers are insuring themselves this spring against heavy losses at harvest time from grain smuts. They are refilling their formalin prescriptions and planning to give their seed grains a thorough treatment of formaldehyde before seeding. R. E. Vaughan, pathologist at the agricultural experiment station, estimates that Wisconsin farmers lost from smut last year one million bushels of oats and half a million bushels of barley. He is of the opinion that much of the seed which will be used this spring is infected with smut and similar diseases.

"Unless the farmer," says Mr. Vaughan, "has seed that he knows is not infected, he will find that a preventive treatment will pay. The common method of treatment is dipping for five minutes in a solution of one part formaldehyde to 35 parts of water. Smut machines are also being used more and more. Four or five farmers usually buy and use a single machine.

Observations indicate that smut thrives best when much dry weather follows immediately after planting time. The oats do not germinate fast enough to get the "jump" on the smut. Oats that germinate readily and begin a rapid growth are usually best able to stand smut attacks.

MILK STILL FALLING

NOW DOWN TO TEN CENTS A QUART TO CONSUMERS AT WAUSAU

The Market divisions news letter will say this week of the prices being paid in cities for milk:

"The city milk business has been featured of late by the so-called 'milk wars' in certain cities of the state. Prices paid to the farmers for milk have been steadily dropping, the average price paid in the cities reporting for both February and March being $2.45 per cwt. in March as compared with the February average of $2.55 per cwt. Superior continues to pay the highest price for milk, and Madison the lowest, there being a dollar per hundred pounds difference in the price paid to farmers and the consumer in Madison pays four cents less per quart than the Superior consumer. The state average city price to consumers dropped from 11.5 cents in February to 11.1 cents in March.

"The following table gives prices paid to producers for milk, the prices paid by stores and the retail price of milk to consumers in some of the important cities of the state."

Many Knights Coming

Many visiting knights who are members of the local organization are expected, including large delegations from Wisconsin Rapids and Wausau. St. Omer Commandery of Wausau has accepted an invitation to participate in the service and other members of the local body are expected from Amherst, Plainfield, Hancock, Bancroft, Manawa, Marshfield and other towns in central Wisconsin. It is probable that nearly 75 visiting Masons will be in attendance in addition to large numbers from this city.

New Pastor to Arrive

The pulpit of the local commandery will conduct the ritualistic service at the church and Mr. Perry will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Pier, the new pastor.

WISCONSIN RAPIDS RECRUITS BATTERY

ORGANIZATION IS READY FOR MUSTERING IN, CAPTAIN HERSCHELE TELLS HOLWAY

Wisconsin Rapids, April 4.—Captain W. E. Herschle has notified Adjutant General Holway that the local battery has been recruited up to required strength and is ready for muster into the Wisconsin National Guard. The local unit will be a part of the Second Regiment of Field Artillery.

The organization, in order to muster, must have a total of 52 men. This number is already at hand and the state mustering officer is expected within a short time, so before long Wisconsin Rapids may boast of a unit in the National Guard.

Soon after muster 32 houses and four complete gun sections will be received, and local citizens will have a chance to see a firing battery practice the different drills, such as going in to action and "Havers front and rear."

No definite arrangements as to the final officers of the battery have been made, but several members of old battery D, 1908 F. A. have signified their intention of joining and the final selection probably will be made from among them. Non-commissioned officers will be chosen according to general efficiency and all around ability to "hold."

SAVE THE BLUEBERRY

THAT IS THE PURPOSE OF BILL INTRODUCED IN LEGISLATURE

Blueberries Have Abundant Supply

Madison, April 5.—The abundance of a million of more than 200 million bushels annually from the blueberry regions in every season. O. C. Mader, of the agricultural experiment station estimates that during the last two or three seasons, from 20 to 30 per cent of the blueberry crop has been destroyed by early harvesting with the blueberry rake, and is owing to this destruction of green berries together with the harvesting of immature and undeveloped berries, that owners of blueberry patches and dealers in blueberries are all interested in, and advocating the passage of a bill now before the legislature. This bill prohibits harvesting blueberries with a blue berry rake or other mechanical device prior to July 20 and the blueberry rake are threatening Wisconsin's blueberry industry.

Blueberries have abundant supply, but the early harvesting of the fruit has afforded a source of considerable revenue to residents of the districts. Close observers have seen the advent of the automobile and the blue berry rake, and a very factor of a somewhat serious nature to the highly prized crop of the wild lands. Automobiles coming from one year, except to position of the land owner, and provide a penalty not to exceed $500 for the offense.

Residents of the blueberry country regard this as a much needed regulation and one that will mean a big saving in the quantity and quality of the blueberries harvest. Jackson, Monroe and Juneau counties alone produce more than fifty thousand crates of blueberries annually. Mr. Mader predicts that there will be the near future develop in this state a cultivated blueberry industry of commercial importance.

RAILROADS KILL ROAD PROGRAM

REFUSE TO REDUCE THEIR BURDENSOME FREIGHT RATES ON ROAD MATERIALS

Madison, Wis., April 5.—Refusal of railroad companies to reduce freight rates on road building materials will cause a curtailment in the highway construction program for this year in Wisconsin according to A. E. Hirst, state highway engineer.

The state highway department had requested the western classification committee of the railroads to reduce rates in order to stimulate business and not curtail the highway program. Both the Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroads companies have refused to make any reduction at this time.

Construction plans are now being altered to meet this condition. The highway commissioners were confident their request would be given favorable consideration and made plans for an extensive construction program. Engineer Hirst has also notice to all counties asking them to conform to the state's policy of doing only a limited amount of construction because of high freight rates. The engineering department estimates the additional freight rate will cost $4,000 per mile for an 18 foot concrete highway.

A. Goshay, in that city the latter part of this week. She is now at Riverview hospital in Wisconsin Rapids, where the bullets were removed. Physicians say no permanent effects will result from her wounds.

MEAT DIVORCE LAWS IN SAN FRANCISCO

ANNULMENTS, ALLOWING MARRIAGES WITHIN YEAR, POPULAR IN GOLDEN GATE METROPOLIS

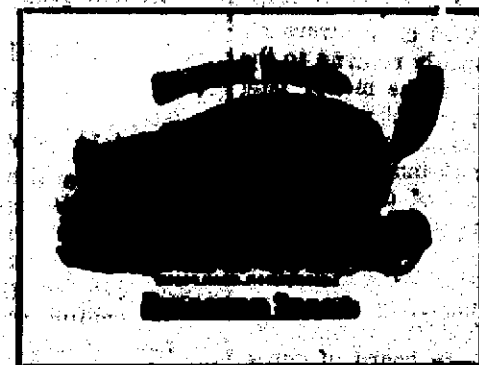

San Francisco, April 4.—Divorces as a means of getting rid of troublesome mates, are becoming unfashionable in San Francisco, according to Superior Judge E. P. Shortall. Annulments are proving less cumbersome and quicker—in fact quicker than Reno. As a result the grand jury is going to look into things a bit.

Persons who desire to travel that paths singly after failing properly in double marriages, covered, Shortall says, and bring a suit for annulment, and the other member of the party had a previous mate from whom there was no legal divorce. The is tried, and often, by agreement on account of being unable to produce evidence, it goes untried. The marriage is annulled. The minute the annulment is entered both parties are free to marry again, without the formality of waiting a year. But what interests the court is there have been no prosecutions bigamy growing out of the annulments granted on the ground bigamous marriage. Annulments have averaged as high as seven a day for a week during the past months, court records show.

BIG AMOUNT PAID FOR DOG LICENSES

LAW JUST REPEALED BY LEGISLATURE PROVIDED GOOD SOURCE OF INCOME IN COUNTY

$8,642 TOTAL COLLECTED

MOST OF THIS SUM TO BE RETURNED TO THE LOCAL UNITS

A total of $8,642 was paid for dog licenses in Portage county in 1920 under the law enacted by the 1919 legislature making the fee $5 for each female dog and $3 for each male dog. The number of male dogs licensed in the county was 2,184 and the number of females 418.

Under the 1919 law, which was recently repealed by the legislature as a result of strong agitation against it, especially by farmers, assessors enumerated each dog in their respective districts receiving 20 cents for each dog listed. The licenses were issued by the various town, village and city clerks, who collected a fee of 15 cents for each license. The clerks were required to make monthly returns to the county treasurer. Of the money paid in for licenses, 15 per cent went to the state. The balance, after paying all expenses, including claims for damages due to depredations of dogs, will be pro-rated back among the various local units, in the same proportion as the money was paid in, on the close of the license year, July 1, 1921.

Only one damage claim was allowed by the Portage county board of supervisors, as provided under the law, at its session last November, that being one of $25 for damages alleged to have resulted when a dog made a raid on a flock of turkeys.

Figures on Licenses
The following list, just compiled by County Clerk A. E. Bourn, shows the number of male and female dogs licensed in each unit of the county and the respective amounts received for licenses:

THE VICTORY MEDAL HOW TO OBTAIN IT

INSTRUCTIONS FOR EX-SERVICE MEN IN MAKING APPLICATION FOR WAR REMEMBRANCE

Ex-service men of Wisconsin can secure their Victory medals by applying to the post adjutant of any American legion post or American Red Cross chapter for the necessary blanks to be filled out and forwarded to the Victory Medal office, United States army, public library building, Milwaukee, or by applying direct to that office.

This medal is awarded to every man who saw service, either domestic or foreign, during the period from April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918. Men who were drafted, but were rejected due to physical disability after reaching camp, are not entitled to the medal.

The medal bears a clasp for each major offensive or defensive and a defensive sector clasp for all minor battles. A medal for service in a foreign country, but no battle participation, is issued bearing the name of the country served in. In the case of the men who saw only domestic service the medal is issued plain, that is, without clasps.

This medal belongs to each and every man who was in service in the world war and is a beautiful symbol of remembrance. Every ex-service man should see about his at once, as the war department wants all men to have them as rapidly as possible.

WILL VISIT VATICAN

ARCHBISHOP MESSMER PLANNING TRIP TO ROME THIS SUMMER

Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer of the Milwaukee archdiocese will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination into the priesthood of the Catholic church this year with a journey to Rome and several functions to be given by Catholic organizations of the state of Wisconsin.

Archbishop Messmer for a number of years was bishop of the Green Bay diocese and visited in Stevens Point on several occasions. He was succeeded as bishop by the late Rt. Rev. Joseph J. Fox.

Arrangements are being made for his passage to Europe next June when he will make an official visit to the vatican at Rome, and later to the church in which he said his first mass. The little edifice is located near St. Gall's, Switzerland. Only preliminary arrangements for his departure have been made so far, but a number of functions will probably be held in his honor prior to his leaving.

FARMERS NOT LIABLE UNDER PEDDLER LAW

DON'T NEED LICENSE TO SELL PRODUCTS FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE, MORGAN HOLDS

The right of farmers to sell products of the farm from house to house in cities is upheld by William J. Morgan, attorney general of Wisconsin, in an opinion recently handed down. Mr. Morgan holds that farmers, in selling from house to house, do not thereby become peddlers in literal sense and are therefore exempt from the provisions of the state law regulating this class of traders.

"A farmer who occasionally goes from house to house in the city, disposing of produce, is not engaged in peddling and is not required to take out a peddler's license," Mr. Morgan held.

"While in its general and usual sense, the word 'peddle' has reference to the manner of selling and is applicable equally whether the selling in that manner be a regular business or merely a practice resorted to from time to time. I think that the legislature in enacting Section 1570 of the statutes, has plainly indicated a legislative intent to subject to the requirements of the peddler's license only such as sell articles in this manner as a business or vocation, but not to include those who may do so only occasionally and merely as an incident to some other business which is their real vocation. The statutes does not say, 'No person shall peddle within the state without having first obtained a license for that purpose,' but reads, 'No person shall engage in or follow the business or occupation of a hawker or peddler within this state without having first obtained a license.'"

ADDING TEN STATIONS
An officer of Fame Canning Co., Chicago, was a recent visitor to this city, coming here to consult with Frank Swanson, their district representative, and complete necessary details for erection of ten salting stations in this portion of Wisconsin. The building of one at Galloway, Marathon county, and others at Kelly and Tigerton have already been commenced. Mr. Swanson will have general supervision of all the company's stations in this territory.

POLISH ORPHANS REACH POLONIA

TWENTY-FIVE BOYS BROUGHT TO PORTAGE COUNTY INSTITUTION FROM FAR OFF SIBERIA

WELCOMED AT ORPHANAGE

LANGUAGE OF LADS RUSSIAN. LIVED DURING THE PAST SIX YEARS

Twenty-five boys ranging in age from six to 12 years reached Portage county last week Tuesday on the last lap of a trans-continental journey which began in Nicolaiewsk, Siberia, more than a month ago. All are orphans, the sons of Polish men and women who lost their lives when driven from Poland by the advancing German armies during the world war. These boys have been provided a home at St. Clara's orphanage at Polonia, which is conducted by the Felician Sisters.

Work of Relief Society

The little band of 25 youths was included in a party of 350 boys who have been brought to America through the efforts of the Polish Relief society. Taken away from Nicolaiewsk, they were given transportation to Japan and from there sailed across the Pacific and were taken in charge at Seattle. From that city they were sent to Chicago for distribution to orphanages and other institutions where they could receive proper care. A movement is under way to bring to the United States hundreds of these unfortunate children.

Speak With Dialect

The boys who have been given a home at Polonia were accompanied by a Red Cross nurse. They came from Chicago on Soo line train No. 5 and were met at Custer station by four automobiles in which they were conveyed to the orphanage. The boys speak Polish, but six years of existence under Russian rule has worked a change in their mother tongue which makes it difficult for them to be understood. Their language has been Russianized as a result of their associations and environment in Siberia.

Family Ties Broken

When the world war broke out these children were members of families which were peacefully residing in Poland. These people fled before the Germans and their acts of devastation, seeking protection and safety in Siberian territory. Warfare between the Russian and bolshevik forces, combined with other chaos and upheaval during and following war times, depleted the ranks of the adult Polish people who had been driven from their homes and left hundreds of children motherless and fatherless, uncared for and in the hands of the Russian people. In recent months the Polish Relief society in this country has organized its forces and gone to the assistance of these orphans, who have been assembled in numbers in Nicolaiewsk, Siberia, and taken from that country to America. They have been provided with clothing and are placed in institutions shortly after their arrival in Chicago.

Agree to Help Cause

The orphanage at Polonia was recently requested to take in charge a group of these children and having room for them, agreed to take them in. They will remain at the orphanage until they reach the age of 14 years, when each will be found a home on a farm in this part of the state. The mothers and fathers of a few of these children may be living but nothing regarding them has ever been learned by those who have made it possible to find homes for the children in America.

GIVEN FOUR MONTHS AND FINE OF $100

HEAVY SENTENCE FOR PLOVER ROAD MAN WHEN JURY RE-TURNS VERDICT FINDING HIM GUILTY

In circuit court at Wisconsin Rapids last week Judge B. B. Park imposed a fine of $100 and a sentence of four months in the Wood county jail upon C. F. Rosenberger, proprietor of the Golden Eagle saloon on the Plover road and formerly a resident of this city. Failure to pay the $100 would have added 60 days to the jail sentence but Rosenberger paid the fine and immediately started to serve his jail term. The court's action followed the decision of a jury, which returned a verdict holding the defendant guilty of having sold moonshine.

"There's the money," Rosenberger said to Clerk of Court A. B. Beyer at Wisconsin Rapids. "All right, sheriff, let's go," and he started serving a term which will terminate next July 29. The fine and costs amounted to $155.

William Hankey of Wisconsin Rapids, who was charged with unlawfully possessing moonshine, was given a fine of $100 and a 30 day term in the Wood county jail by Judge Park. Failure to pay the fine will mean an additional 60 day sentence. Hankey's wife accompanied him to the jail, where she took her husband's fur overcoat upon leaving him. He decided he would not need it when he was released on April 29. A motion had been made for a dismissal of the charge against Hankey but this was denied.

In the Rosenberger case a motion had been filed for a new trial but the judge explained that the jury had decided the matters of fact and that a second trial would bring him nothing. The fact that Rosenberger had previously been convicted in a federal court on a similar charge resulted in his drawing a somewhat heavier sentence than did Hankey.

WAUPACA DEBATERS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

TEAMS WILL NOT OPPOSE DODGEVILLE AND MADISON FOR THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Two Waupaca High school debating teams, twice winners in previous contests, were again returned victors last week by defeating teams of student speakers representing the Green Bay East Side and the Two Rivers High schools. The Waupaca High school in March eliminated Stevens Point from further participation by winning the league which also included Portage. Stevens Point had previously defeated Marshfield.

The debate between the Waupaca affirmative and Green Bay East Side High school negative team on the Each Cummins rail law was held at Waupaca. President John F. Sims of this city was one of the judges. The decision was unanimous. This was the third time the Waupaca affirmative team won this season by a three to nothing vote. The same evening Waupaca's negative team won at Two Rivers by a vote of two to one.

The next contest will be when Madison, Dodgeville and Waupaca will debate to decide the state championship. Dodgeville speakers will go to Waupaca, a Madison team will go to Dodgeville and a Waupaca team to Madison. In case of a tie the two claimants to the title will go to Appleton for two debates in the afternoon and evening on a neutral stage.

Proposed State Law Would Let Owners Assess Own Machines

Madison, April 4.—The automobile tax boosting bill to be introduced this week by the legislative joint finance committee permits each car owner to place a value on his own machine.

There is a joker in the bill, however, so far as the car owner is concerned. His valuation is attached to the car in shape of a license tag so all may see. The valuation will also effect insurance carried on the machine as well as its sales value.

Members of the joint finance committee said there would be little danger of owners purposely under-assessing their machines when they fully understood the law.

The automobiles are subject to a two per cent tax on valuation plus the license fee of $10 annually. The state will raise between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 additional revenue from this tax, it is estimated. The revenue goes to the highway department and will relieve the general fund more than $1,000,000 as well as relieve the general property taxpayer from state mill tax assessments.

WANT WIRE SERVICE FOR STATE FARMERS

MOVE FOR SCIENTIFIC MARKETING OF FARM PRODUCTS IS MADE BY DIRECTOR NORDMAN

Madison, April 1.—Cost of production knowledge is of little benefit to the farmer, Edward Nordman, head of the state division of markets told a legislative committee Thursday.

The farmer is compelled to take what he can get for his products and must accept lower prices than costs if the market calls for such sacrifices. "Dumping" products on the market in a few weeks of the year causes price slumps which make farming unprofitable, Nordman said. If farmers allowed their products to be sold over a twelve month period instead of a six weeks' period there would not be price fluctuations that spell ruin to the industry, he said.

The markets division asked an appropriation to permit a leased wire market news service installed at the offices in Madison. Using this leased wire service, which is operated by the government as a basis, Nordman says farmers could be brought in closer touch with actual market conditions and could save money by diverting products from congested to more favorable markets.

SOO LINE PLANNING 40 MILE EXTENSION

RESERVE-MELLEN LINE IS PLANNED IN ORDER TO OPEN UP NEW NORTH TERRITORY

According to an announcement of Soo line officials, the spur terminating at Reserve in Sawyer county will be extended to Mellen this year the work to commence early the coming summer. The extension will be 40 miles long and will give the Soo line a direct line to the Twin Cities from points in the extreme northern part of the state and the western part of upper Michigan.

It was reported to be the desire of the Soo line officials to extend this line through to Mellen so that connections with the Ashland-Chicago Soo road may be made. The cost of this extension will be in the millions, it is said.

The opening up of the country between Reserve and Mellen will throw open for settlement hundreds of acres which have been lying idle because of the inability on the part of settlers and farmers to market their produce.

ORNS ATTEND PROM KLINGER IS PLEASED

LESS WEeping ON PROM NIGHT AS A RESULT OF EDICT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

There was less weeping in Stevens Point on "prom night" this year than a year ago.

Principal L. R. Klinger of the Stevens Point high school, who championed the cause of Junior girls a month before the prom when it looked as if only a few would get to the party, kept a watchful eye on his proteges last Friday evening and now reports that 28 representative high school couples were in attendance.

Mr. Klinger's stand a month ago resulted in an edict from the board of education, which ruled that 20 Junior girls must be assured of invitations to the prom or it would be called off. Junior boys entered into the spirit of the request and shortly afterwards the minimum requirement had been reached.

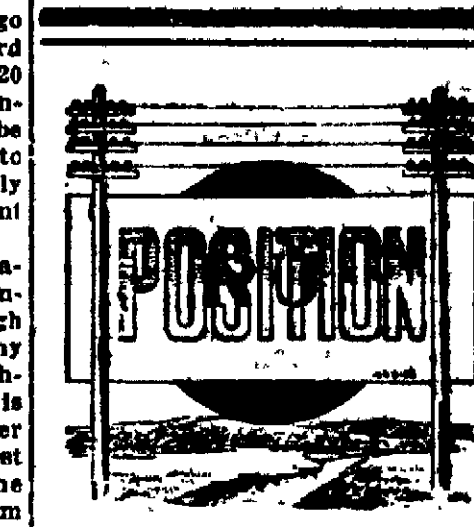

In addition to the 28 representative couples who attended the promenade, which were couples of high school students, there were many other couples present in which either the young man or young lady is a high school student. Mr. Klinger reports that the response was most pleasing. In a statement to the Journal he said: "The Junior prom is given first of all for high school people and those who desire to go should be given the opportunity. I am not in favor of making the party a strictly high school affair but believe the attendance should be representative of the institution."

Another innovation in connection with the Junior prom this year was the decision of the class a few days before the party to oppose the wearing of corsage bouquets. This was aimed to cut the high cost of dancing. It developed at the party, however, that the action did not meet with the approval of all who attended as a dozen or more young ladies wore corsage bouquets.

GETS TWO YEAR SENTENCE Judge Byron S. Park at this city sentenced John Reed to two years in the Green Bay reformatory. Reed, aged about 26 years, and of late following the life of a hobo, is alleged to have broken into Soo line box car at Marshfield on the night of March 16 and stolen a quantity of shoes, which was being shipped by the Blodgett company to southern points. Merrill Guyant of this city, a special agent for the railroad, was put on Reed's trail and caught him at Ashland. In the meantime he had tried to sell some of the stolen goods at Hewitt.

PARSONAGE DEDICATED

OCCASION CELEBRATED BY THE PEOPLE OF TOWN OF BUENA VISTA

Buena Vista, Wis., April 5.—The dedication of the parsonage Friday evening was a grand success in every way. The ladies served a delicious banquet. Dr. Williams gave a splendid address, showing the value of the church to a community in that it increases the value of property, thus helping the merchant, materially speaking, besides all the social and spiritual benefits derived from the church. The church also keeps politicians from doing the wrong thing, he said. He also proved how women have been benefited by the Gospel. Four thousand years ago women were not even counted as citizens. A little over 50 years ago women were sold. But now! they are man's equal, even with the ballot.

The fire was discovered in the early afternoon when members of the Hickman family were in a front room of their home. It had then gained so much headway that one barn was ready to collapse. A volunteer fire fighting brigade consisting of nearly 50 farmers responded but were unable to check the conflagration. The home and other buildings were saved.

The origin of the fire was unknown at first but a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hickman later confessed to having taken a match from his mother's fur coat and gone to one of the buildings where corn fodder was stored. When he lighted the match the fodder quickly ignited, the flames gaining rapid headway.

Insurance in the sum of $1,000 was carried in the Reynolds agency of this city.

TOWN AND VILLAGE ELECTION RESULTS

STATISTICS SHOW THAT SIX OF SEVEN BADGER FARMERS OWN LAND THEY WORK

Madison, April 6.—Only one farmer in seven in Wisconsin is a tenant, and many of those who are tenants plan to be listed as farm owners as soon as they can save the necessary wherewithal to acquire a piece of land and the makings. Until that proud day comes, they will content themselves with leasing a general dairy or stock farm on a half-and-half basis. This, according to B. H. Hubbard, agricultural economist at the University of Wisconsin, is proving the most satisfactory plan for tenant and land owner.

CHARGES DENIED BY WAUSAU CHIEF

THOMAS MALONE DECLARES TOURISTS WERE NOT ARRESTED IN NUMBERS FOR SPEEDING

Chief of Police Thomas Malone of Wausau, in a public statement, denies he charge that the city's police force has been indiscriminate in arresting speeders. He also denies the report that one tourist was arrested and fined for driving 18 miles an hour.

"During the summer of 1920," said Chief Malone, "the special officer and the regular police force made a total of sixty arrests for violation of the speed and traffic laws. Of these sixty persons haled into court forty-four were residents of Wausau. There were three from Merrill and one each from Shawano, Marshfield, Wisconsin Rapids, Green Bay and Medford.

The other three were tourists, one being from Chicago, one from St. Louis and one from Indiana. The Chicago man made Wausau his headquarters for several days and was complained of several times before he was arrested. It does not seem to me that this record shows any persecution of tourists."

TENANCY ON DECLINE ON WISCONSIN FARMS

STATISTICS SHOW THAT SIX OF SEVEN BADGER FARMERS OWN LAND THEY WORK

Madison, April 6.—Only one farmer in seven in Wisconsin is a tenant, and many of those who are tenants plan to be listed as farm owners as soon as they can save the necessary wherewithal to acquire a piece of land and the makings. Until that proud day comes, they will content themselves with leasing a general dairy or stock farm on a half-and-half basis. This, according to B. H. Hubbard, agricultural economist at the University of Wisconsin, is proving the most satisfactory plan for tenant and land owner.

MOTHER AND SONS HELD FOR MURDER

SAID TO HAVE KILLED BOY AND SAID HE WAS ANOTHER, TO GET HIS IN.

Warsaw, Ind., March 31.—Indictments were returned against Mrs. Lydia Decker and her three sons, James Virgil Decker, Fred Decker and Cal Decker, charging them with first degree murder for the killing of Leroy Lovett, 20, of Elkhart.

The Deckers are in jail here. They are held without bail.

Lovett was found near railway tracks on which a buggy had been hit by a train. His skull had been fractured, but it was clear the train had not touched him. He was taken to a hospital at Bourbon, Ind., and died there March 13, the day following the night when he was found near the track just out of Atwood, Ind.

Mrs. Decker and other members of her family identified the body as that of James Virgil Decker, who had gone for an auto ride with Lovett. The boy had on a suit belonging to James V. Decker, who then was missing.

Signs of a struggle and other evidence in a cabin on Fred Decker's farm and near the Tippecanoe river indicated that a man had been attacked there. Later Samuel Lovett identified the body as that of his son Leroy.

James V. Decker was arrested March 15 at the home of an uncle in Marion, Ind. He first denied the murder, later confessed he killed Leroy Lovett, who was asleep.

In seeking a motive, it was found that James V. Decker carried life and accident insurance, payable to his brother, Fred. The policies would pay about $14,000 for natural and nearly $30,000 for accidental death. This put the whole Decker family under inquiry.

A House of Hearts.
A "henry" home is that of the wife of a doctor in California. The tables, chairs, etc., in fact, all the furniture of the peculiar house are heart-shaped! The owner's bed has a heart-shaped headboard supported on both sides by bedposts carved to represent Cupid's arrow. The heart-shaped headboard is decorated with a heart-shaped picture frame in which two angels embrace each other! The remarkable house is named the "Pericardium," which means the membrane enclosing the heart and the great blood vessels.

The Dog Watch.
"Dog-watch" is a corruption of "dodge-watch." On board ship there are two sorts of watches—the "long-watch" of four hours, and the "dog-watch" of two hours, but, strictly speaking, a watch means four hours. The dog watches are two short watches, one from 4 to 6 in the morning and the other from 6 to 8 in the evening, introduced to "dodge" the routine, or prevent the same men always keeping watch at the same time.
